

Service-Learning Semester Abroad

Arusha, Tanzania

Spring Semester: January 16 – April 29, 2012

Summer Session: June 4 – August 5, 2012

Fall Semester: September 3 – December 16, 2012

For students interested in international development, public health, agriculture, global food security

- 15 Fall or Spring semester credits transferable through SUNY-Albany
9 transferable credits for Summer field program
- Academic plus field study in HIV/AIDS Prevention and Nutrition Education, Sustainable Agriculture and Global Food Security
- Homestay with local Tanzanian host families
- English, no language requirement. Opportunity to learn Swahili.
- Fall, Spring: $10,593 estimated program fee; Summer: $7,300 estimated program fee

Co-sponsored by:

For More Information: globalservicecorps.org

Year-round Volunteer and Student Internship Opportunities in Tanzania, Thailand, and Cambodia